Summer 2025

Building neighbor-serving faith communities: Get to know Bishop-elect Katrina Foster

Known for her work helping struggling congregations revitalize and grow, Katrina Foster brings her message of community-building and financial stewardship to her new role as bishop of the Metropolitan New York Synod, to which she was elected May 3.

Foster, who has served as pastor of St. John Lutheran Church in New York City since 2015, shared with Living Lutheran her vision for a transforming faith that impacts churches and the communities they serve. She will be installed as bishop this fall.

Living Lutheran: What do you see as the biggest priorities for the synod?

Foster: We will focus on evangelism, discipleship and financial stewardship so that we can become even more effective Jesus-following, neighbor-serving communities of faith.

How did you feel when you were elected?

I felt as though they were talking about someone else!

What experiences in your ministry do you feel have best prepared you to serve as bishop, and how might you incorporate those lessons learned?

I have served in the Bronx, the Hamptons and Brooklyn. Serving in such diverse settings, I learned how to be a community organizer, how to build affordable housing and how to reach a much younger community of seekers. Responding to the concrete needs of our neighbors, utilizing the gifts of the community beyond the church and sharing the life-changing, transformative power of Jesus with all will, in turn, transform this synod.

Is there a message you'd like to share with the synod and the wider church?

God has trusted us with the gifts, talents and financial resources to do all we are called to do. As Easter people, we are called to trust Jesus enough to share these with our neighbors so that we can follow Jesus and serve our neighbors. We can move from fear to faith, from scarcity to abundance, from isolation to community and from despair to determination!

Happy Retirement!

It takes many dedicated people to hold a church together. This year, two of the most dedicated volunteers at CLC have decided to retire. There are not enough words to thank Regina Coons and Lilly Ann Munnich for all they’ve done!

Regina Coons- When Regina joined the church, she immediately became the “lady behind the scenes.” Regina visited with patients at the Central Islip rehabilitation center and Bel Air Nursing Home. She has served several terms as a Church Council member, as well as serving as a member of the Worship & Music Committee, Nursery Board, and altar guild. As the chairperson of Christian Outreach, she has sent hundreds of cards to celebrate holidays with those who were homebound. Regina is also a longtime member of WELCA. Perhaps her biggest feat, for many years she has spent months ahead of the Country Fair putting together raffle baskets; 2024 was her biggest year yet, with 72 baskets! Regina has also helped to coordinate the Christmas at Sea satchels for Seafarers International House, making for many cheerful holiday seasons for workers far from home. On Fridays, Regina could be found volunteering with the thrift shop. In addition to these activities, Regina has also volunteered her time with Vacation Bible School and the Knitwits. Although she has decided to take a well-deserved respite, Regina will always remain one of our dearest friends, and the supreme baker of Linzer tarts (and so many other goodies!).

Lilly Ann Munnich- After sixteen years serving as the President of WELCA, Lilly Ann has decided to take a step back to focus on her health and continued recovery. Lilly Ann began her tenure as a co-president alongside Betty Jane Callahan. When Betty Jane moved to Connecticut in 2009, Lilly Ann took the reigns and has been unstoppable ever since. It was Lilly Ann and Betty Jane who began the Mother’s Day Caring Sunday and Father’s Day 2x4 Sunday fundraisers, both of which the church continues to observe. She has made it a point through the years to begin each WELCA meeting with some words of spiritual encouragement, which are often shared here in the Spire. Twice a year, Lilly Ann chaired WELCA luncheons which were beautifully decorated with place settings and gifts. Aside from WELCA, Lilly Ann is also known for her passion project, the Knitwits, which is responsible for providing fellowship to many ladies of the church, and creating beautiful handmade items for those in need across

Long Island. She has also served as a thrift shop volunteer, the church's point of contact and coordinator for Book Fairies, altar guild member, Fourth of July parade float maker, Country Fair co-chair, baker of incredible Scandinavian desserts, and hostess of many potluck dinners that we have all enjoyed. Lilly Ann looks forward to remaining a vocal church member and continuing to share her words of wisdom with us.

CHRISTIAN OUTREACH

The Lutheran Social Services New Life Center needs your help to replenish its shelves as it continues to serve a growing population of Long Islanders facing income and food insecurity. The items listed below are especially needed. Donations can be dropped off at the New Life Center directly, or brought to the Church office where we will coordinate drop-off. Thank you for your generosity!

Needed items include baked beans, canned chili, canned veggies (mixed, corn, peas), cereal (no cheerios, please), complete pancake mix & syrup, condiments (barbecue sauce, salad dressing, ketchup & mustard), dry beans (black and red), jam & jelly, juice (64-oz. bottles), laundry detergent pods, macaroni & cheese, pasta, rice-a-roni/knorr rice sides/rice pilaf mix, spam, and white rice (1lb. or 2lb. packages).

WELCA

Greetings! WELCA will resume meetings in September. I, however, am unable to continue as leader in the future. After 16+ years as leader, and with my continuing therapy because of a number of surgeries, I find it too difficult to remain as leader. I do hope that the mission of WELCA will continue under new leadership. Wishing you Godspeed.

– Lilly Ann Munnich

CLC CENTENNIAL

"Many hands make light work."

THANK YOU TO...

As summer unfolds, we want to take a moment to extend our deepest gratitude to all who generously gave their time and talents in service to the church throughout this year. Special thanks to Della Rao for coordinating schedules, managing communications, and for all the things she does behind the scenes to keep the church running smoothly. A heartfelt thanks to all who work to maintain the building and help to make it a welcoming space inside and out. A special thanks goes to Jeri Hallgren, Barbara Rath, and all involved with the Thrift Shop. Their tireless dedication, hard work, and compassion make this ministry a tremendous success. Their efforts not only support the church; they also serve and uplift the wider community in powerful ways. We are incredibly grateful to all the members of the Bell Choir, Adult Choir, and the newly formed Youth Choir. Music enriches worship every week.

Special thanks to Nicole Nicholson for her outstanding teaching and leadership in guiding the ensembles and to Kamelija Galijan-Curry for her exceptional musicianship and collaboration that help to make worship prayerful and uplifting. It truly takes a village to prepare and lead Sunday worship. The many hands that help behind the scenes are invaluable; their commitment and service is deeply appreciated. A special thanks to Roxanne Toomey for her dedication to leading prayer in worship. Finally, we extend our heartfelt thanks to Pastor Sprowls for walking with us and offering guidance as we prepare to welcome our new shepherd. Thank you all for being the heart of Christ Lutheran Church!

Sincerely, The Church Council

CLC HISTORY

On June 25, 2025, Christ Lutheran Church lost a dear friend with the passing of Pastor Ron Klose. The retired pastor of Our Redeemer Church in Seaford, Pastor Ron was a good friend of this church's former pastor, Martin Nale. During the long pastoral vacancy period, Pastor Klose was always willing and able to preside at worship service. He took the time to get to know the church staff, share his love of music, and socialize with the congregation during coffee hour. We are all indebted to him for his thoughtfulness and dedication to ministry. For those who feel inclined to share their condolences, Pastor Klose's family requests that donations be made to any of the following organizations: Adirondack Center for Loon Conservation, Vexas Foundation, or Our Redeemer Lutheran Church.

Nursery School News: Summer 2025

The Summer Program at the Nursery School has just ended and it was a big success! The children enjoyed five themed weeks this year; one week of Hawaiian fun, 4th of July week, a Circus week, farm animal week and a reptile week. This year we had five full classrooms with a total of 57 children total. With such a large turnout we had some special visitors to help out with our themed weeks. For our circus week, there was a clown who made each child a balloon animal dog. The farm animal week was filled with pony rides and a petting farm from Rocking Horse Farms. Reptile week ended the program with a visit from Uncle Tony's Reptiles where all the children had the opportunity to handle and feed many reptiles. On Thursdays, the children had a blast cooling off with some water table fun and running through the sprinklers with their new friends.

Before we know it, September will be here and the halls will be filled with smiling faces as the children enter the building for the new school year. The summer classes are specifically set up so that children will have the opportunity to meet some of the new students that will be in their class for the upcoming school year.
